Classification : Public Documentation

1. INTRODUCTION

DPGNotes respects intellectual property rights and is committed to operating as a responsible educational platform. This policy explains the procedures for copyright complaints, content removal, contributor responsibilities, and compliance with applicable laws governing online educational services.

2. DIGITAL MILLENNIUM COPYRIGHT ACT (DMCA)

The Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) is a United States copyright law that establishes a notice-and-takedown framework for online service providers.

Although DPGNotes primarily operates in India, copyright complaints from international copyright owners are also respected. Where applicable, DPGNotes follows a good-faith notice and review process similar to the DMCA to protect intellectual property rights.

3. COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

Users must not upload, distribute, or share content unless they possess the necessary ownership rights, licenses, or legal authorization.

Examples include:

- Commercial textbooks
- Paid coaching materials
- Publisher-owned question banks
- Copyrighted examination guides
- Licensed eBooks
- Premium digital study materials
- Copyright-protected PDFs
- University materials whose redistribution is prohibited

4. NOTICE OF COPYRIGHT CLAIM

If you believe your copyrighted work is available on DPGNotes without authorization, you may submit a written copyright complaint containing:

- Full Name
- Organization (if applicable)
- Contact Information
- Identification of the copyrighted work
- URL of the allegedly infringing content
- Statement of ownership
- Good-faith declaration
- Electronic or physical signature

Submitting false or misleading copyright claims may result in legal consequences under applicable laws.

=====

5. REVIEW & TAKEDOWN PROCEDURE

After receiving a valid copyright complaint, DPGNotes may:

- Review the complaint.
- Temporarily restrict access.
- Contact the contributor.
- Remove the reported document.
- Disable associated public share links.
- Preserve audit records.
- Notify the reporting party after review.

DPGNotes reserves the right to request additional evidence before taking action.

6. COUNTER NOTICE

If a contributor believes content was removed in error, they may submit a counter-notice containing supporting evidence demonstrating ownership or authorization.

DPGNotes will review the submitted information before determining whether the material should be allowed to be re-uploaded by the contributor or not.

Disclaimer:- Our System don't support Backup / Recovery for Admin deleted Docs or hence after delete under false circumstances auto restore of deleted docs is not possible requiring Re – uploading of Docs by Contributor.

=====

7. REPEAT COPYRIGHT VIOLATIONS

Accounts repeatedly violating copyright policies may be subject to:

- Warning Notice
- Temporary Upload Restriction
- Temporary Account Suspension
- Permanent Account Termination
- Restriction from creating future contributor accounts

8. APPLICABLE LEGAL FRAMEWORK
