1. INTRODUCTION

The DPGNotes Regulations & Suspension Act (DRASA) establishes the official governance framework for the DPGNotes platform. It defines the standards of conduct, responsibilities of users and contributors, administrative enforcement procedures, suspension mechanisms, appeal rights, and disciplinary actions necessary to maintain a secure, lawful, professional, and educational environment.

DRASA is an internal platform governance policy created for DPGNotes. It is not legislation enacted by the Government of India or any foreign government. References to Indian and international laws are provided only to demonstrate the legal principles under which DPGNotes intends to operate wherever applicable.

Every person accessing or using DPGNotes agrees to comply with this document together with the Privacy Policy, Terms & Conditions, Security Policy, Data Retention Policy, Tracking & Analytics Policy, Copyright Policy, DMCA Policy, and other official platform documentation.

2. OBJECTIVES

The objectives of DRASA are to establish a transparent, fair, and consistent disciplinary framework that protects contributors, students, educational institutions, administrators, and platform resources.

This policy is designed to:

- Maintain educational integrity.
- Prevent misuse of platform resources.
- Protect copyrighted educational materials.
- Encourage responsible contributor behaviour.
- Prevent fraudulent or malicious activities.
- Ensure consistent administrative actions.
- Protect platform security and infrastructure.
- Provide users with a transparent review and appeal process.
- Promote fairness in disciplinary decisions.
- Maintain trust within the DPGNotes community.

Administrative actions shall always consider the severity of the incident, available evidence, previous user history, intent, and potential impact on the platform before determining an appropriate enforcement action.

=====

3. PLATFORM GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES

DPGNotes follows the following governance principles while enforcing DRASA.

Fairness → Every reported incident is evaluated individually without discrimination.

Transparency → Administrative decisions should be supported by documented evidence and internal audit records.

Proportionality → The severity of disciplinary action should be proportionate to the seriousness of the violation.

Accountability → Contributors remain responsible for all actions performed using their registered accounts.

Educational Integrity → The platform exists solely for lawful educational purposes and academic collaboration.

Security → Protection of platform infrastructure, contributor accounts, and educational resources remains a primary objective.

Privacy → Administrative investigations shall respect applicable privacy obligations while protecting legitimate platform interests.

4. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Users have the right to:

- Access publicly available educational resources.
- Create an account where permitted.
- Upload educational material subject to platform policies.
- Delete their own uploaded documents.
- Request account deletion.
- Appeal eligible administrative decisions.
- Report copyright infringement or security concerns.

Users are responsible for:

- Maintaining accurate account information.
- Protecting authentication credentials.
- Uploading only lawful educational content.
- Respecting intellectual property rights.

- Following all DPGNotes policies.
- Cooperating with administrative investigations where required.

5. REGULATIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Every contributor is expected to maintain professional conduct while using DPGNotes.

Contributors shall not:

8. ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW & APPEALS

Before imposing significant disciplinary action, administrators may consider:

- Available evidence
- Previous contributor history
- Number of previous violations
- Severity of the incident
- Intent
- Educational impact
- Platform security risk
- Community safety

Where permitted, users may submit an appeal through the official Support or Legal Center.

Appeals should include:

- User ID
- Explanation
- Supporting evidence
- Relevant documentation

Submission of an appeal does not guarantee reinstatement. Administrative decisions following review shall normally be considered final unless additional evidence becomes available.

9. LEGAL COMPLIANCE

DPGNotes seeks to operate consistently with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Examples include:

INDIA :-

- Constitution of India
- Copyright Act, 1957
- Information Technology Act, 2000

- Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023

- Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021, where applicable

INTERNATIONAL :-

- Digital Millennium Copyright Act (United States) where relevant to copyright complaints
- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) principles where applicable
- International copyright and intellectual property principles

References to these legal frameworks do not create additional legal obligations beyond those applicable to DPGNotes.

10. POLICY UPDATES

DPGNotes reserves the right to revise DRASA periodically to reflect changes in technology, legal requirements, educational practices, operational procedures, and platform governance.

Updated versions shall supersede previous editions and become effective immediately upon publication within the DPGNotes Legal Center.

=====

11. CONTACT

Questions relating to suspensions, contributor restrictions, copyright matters, security incidents, or administrative actions may be submitted through the official DPGNotes Support Center or Legal Center.
